

Adams County Interchurch Scholarship

The Adams County Interchurch Council will award up to three $250 scholarships to selected recipients. Selection will be based on the applicant's outstanding example of Christian attitude and participation in available church activities. A certificate will be awarded in conjunction with the announcement of the recipients at graduation ceremonies each year. A check will be issued to the students.

APPLICATION PROCEDURES

Any Corning High School senior, any senior who resides in Adams County, or any senior who is active in an Adams County church is eligible to apply.

The application must contain four separate parts.

1. An introductory letter which includes personal information, plans for future education, and life-time goals including the importance of religion in your life.
2. A brief outline of high school and community activities.
3. A separate outline detailing church activities/involvement (based on availability)
4. A letter of recommendation from the minister of your church must accompany the application.

An application will be considered as complete when all four parts are submitted. No application or any part will be accepted after April 30th.

If you should receive this scholarship, a thank you letter can be sent to:
